ICD-10 at the Point of Care

- DocEdge facilitates compliant documentation at the point of care and is the result of careful analysis of thousands of actual clinical records covering every clinical condition, procedure, and care setting.
- DocEdge provides high impact but easy to understand clinical flow charts to guide clinical documenters to meet ICD-10 standards at the point of care.
- Diagnosis and procedure topics are organized by medical specialty and can be bookmarked for future reference.
- Provident isolated the most common, most complex, and highest impact documentation and coding challenges and built DocEdge clinical flow charts to guide documenters, CDI Specialist and coders to meet ICD-10 documentation standards.
